Dear Mr Meyers,

I had a question for you about the decision to rename Dundas subway station TMU after Toronto Metropolitan University.

Did you and other members of the TTC Board ever consider that the name TMU might be offensive to some people (probably a lot of people, in my opinion) due to the well-documented antisemitism that exists on the campus of Toronto Metropolitan University? Do we really want a subway stop named after a university whose administration fails to take adequate steps to stop antisemitism?

Thank you for taking the time to respond to my question. Good luck with your reelection campaign.

Sincerely,

Michael Mitchell
